MEDIA POLICIES/INFORMATION

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

Please direct all credential requests to www.texastech.com. Requests should be made on-line at the official website of the Texas Tech Department of Intercollegiate Athletics. Confirmation of your request will be made upon review by Blayne Beal. Credentials are limited to members of the working media who are assigned to cover Texas Tech Football. Every effort will be made to fulfill each request.

ROAD CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

Please direct all credential requests for Texas Tech's road games to the host school's media relations director. Please note that most schools request that you fill out an on-line application in order to be considered for credentials.

BAYLOR CREDENTIALS

Texas Tech will be the home team for the game against the Baylor Bears at Cotton Bowl Stadium on Saturday, Oct. 10. Credentials for the Baylor game are NOT part of Texas Tech's season credential package and must be requested separately. All credentials for the Baylor game must be submitted online at www.texastech.com.

MORE ON CREDENTIALS

Credentials must be requested on-line by 5 p.m. of Wednesday each game week. All requests made game week will be held for pickup until 5 p.m. Friday at the Athletics Communications Office in Room 117 in the south end of Jones AT&T Stadium. Credentials not picked up by 5 p.m. Friday will be available at the Jones AT&T Stadium Will Call window Saturday, beginning three hours before kickoff; however, parking will not be available at that point.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Photo credentials and photo vests are to be properly displayed at all times and are good for press box access at all times. Photographers must stay behind the dotted line that surrounds the field and are not permitted in the team bench areas.

PRESS FACILITIES

The Jones AT&T Stadium Press Box is equipped with both ethernet lines and wireless capabilities. For wireless access, contact a member of the Texas Tech Athletics Communications staff on game day. The press box has seating for 108 working members of the press and a dedicated photo workroom for up to 10 photographers.

PHONE LINES

Texas Tech provides a minimal number of complementary phone lines. Those members of the media wishing to order their own phone lines can do so by calling AT&T (806) 472-1651.

TUBERVILLE AVAILABILITY

During the season, Texas Tech Head Coach Tommy Tuberville will hold a weekly media luncheon inside the stadium club (west stadium building) at Jones AT&T Stadium. The event will be held each Monday morning at 11:30 a.m. beginning on August 30 and running through Nov. 22. Coach Tuberville will be joined by requested players who are able to attend the event when class schedules do not conflict. Please submit your requested players for each Monday's media luncheon by 5 p.m. on the preceding Sunday. Transcripts of each news conference will be available on the athletics web site (www.texastech.com) early each Monday afternoon. During the season, Tuberville also will meet with the media each day following practice.

BIG 12 CONFERENCE

In addition to his Monday pressers, Tommy Tuberville is available on the Big 12 Conference's weekly teleconference at 10:50 a.m. on Mondays. Contact Bob Burda of the Big 12 Conference for access to the teleconference (469/524-1007).

PLAYER/COACH AVAILABILITY

Players will be available on Monday's (by request) during the weekly media luncheon and on Tuesday afternoon following practice. For Tuesday's post practices interviews, please submit a list of players to Blayne Beal by 1 p.m. each Tuesday afternoon. Phone interviews will be conducted following Tuesday's practice session.

Offensive coordinator Neal Brown and defensive coordinator James Willis will be available to the media following practice on Sunday only. Assistant coaches will not be made available.

TEXAS TECH PRACTICE SCHEDULE

The team will practice each day except for Monday and interviews will follow at the conclusion of practice. Sunday - 3:30 p.m. (Coordinators Only)
Monday - No Practice (Coach Tuberville & Requested Players)
Tuesday - 3:15 p.m. (Coach Tuberville & Players)
Wednesday - 3:15 p.m. (Coach Tuberville)
Thursday - 3:15 p.m. (Coach Tuberville)
All practices will be open for the first 20 minutes only.

MONDAY MEDIA LUNCHEON

Texas Tech's weekly media luncheon will be held each Monday at 11:30 a.m. inside the stadium club (west stadium building) at Jones AT&T Stadium.

TOMMY TUBERVILLE

HEAD COACH

Seeking the chance to take the Big 12's third winningest program to new heights, Tommy Tuberville was named the 14th head coach in school history on January 10, 2010.

Tuberville inherits a program that has been bowl eligible for a Big 12 record 16 consecutive seasons and has won 29 games in the last three seasons. His SEC coaching pedigree suggests that his impact on the Red Raider program will be substantial and his first test will arrive on Sept. 5 when Texas Tech opens the 2010 season at home against the SMU Mustangs.

In 10 seasons at Auburn, Tuberville led the Tigers to 85 overall wins, which ranks fourth in school history. The Tigers also won 49 Southeastern Conference games, a number that is the fourth-best mark in the SEC. Tuberville led Auburn to seven straight bowl appearances, including New Year's Day bowl games in four of those years.

In 2007, Tuberville led Auburn to an 9-4 mark, including a 5-3 record in the Southeastern Conference with wins at No. 4 Florida and a record-setting sixth consecutive win over Alabama in the Iron Bowl. The Tigers concluded the season with an overtime victory over Clemson in the Chick-fil-A Bowl, marking the program's fifth bowl victory in the last six seasons. For the second consecutive year, Tuberville was a finalist for the Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year award for his efforts on and off the field.

The 2006 season saw Tuberville direct the Tigers to their second season with at least 10 wins in the previous three years with an 11-2 record after a 17-14 victory over Nebraska in the AT&T Cotton Bowl Classic. One of three finalists for the inaugural Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year award, Tuberville's 2006 squad was the only program in the country to defeat two teams ranked in the top five nationally - National Champion Florida and LSU.

Coming off a perfect 13-0 season in 2004, expectations for Tommy Tuberville's 2005 Auburn squad were modest after the Tigers lost four players to the first round of the NFL draft, including their entire starting backfield. But Auburn surprised many of the experts, finishing 9-3 and earning a share of its fifth Southeastern Conference Western Division title in six years. Auburn ended the regular season with back-to-back victories over Georgia and Alabama - two teams ranked at the time in the top 10 - setting a new school record in the process with 22 victories over a two year period.

In 2004, Tuberville led Auburn to its best season ever as the Tigers won a school-record 13 games and captured the SEC Championship and the NOKIA Sugar Bowl title. Auburn won its first conference title since 1989 including its first outright championship since 1987.

Auburn defeated five top 15 teams, becoming just the 10th NCAA Division I-A team to finish 13-0 or better. The Tigers earned their first ever berth in a Bowl Championship Series game and defeated Virginia Tech, 16-13 in the Sugar Bowl. For his efforts, Tuberville was named the AFCA, Associated Press, Paul "Bear" Bryant, FCA, SEC and Walter Camp Coach of the Year.

The season before Tuberville's arrival, Auburn finished with a dismal 3-8 overall record and a last place finish in the SEC Western Division. Tuberville guided the program back to the top of the league standings, leading Auburn to an SEC Championship, five Western Division titles including outright championships in 2000 and 2004 and co-championships in 2001, 2002 and 2005. Since 2000, the program is tied for the best conference record among SEC teams with a mark of 47-17 (.734). Tuberville has directed Auburn to eight consecutive bowl appearances, including five New Year's Day bowl berths and three consecutive January 1 bowl games from 2005-07.

Tuberville built an Auburn program that excelled both on and off the field. Players flourished under Tuberville's guidance as Auburn earned 36 first-team All-Southeastern Conference awards, eight All-America honors, 26 SEC All-Freshmen accolades, 57 SEC Player of the Week honors, two SEC Player of the Year awards, two Jacobs Awards presented annually to the league's top blocker and one Most Valuable Player of the SEC Championship game.

Thirty-two players have been selected in the NFL Draft including an SEC-record four in the first round of the 2005 Draft. Running backs Ronnie Brown and Carnell Williams were taken second and fifth respectively, while cornerback Carlos Rogers was selected ninth overall and quarterback Jason Campbell was picked 25th in the first round. It also marked the first time in NFL Draft history that an entire backfield from the same team was taken in the first round. Since 2004, 26 Auburn players have been drafted, including 22 in the last five drafts. Of those 22 selections since 2005, almost half have been selected in the first two rounds; five first-round selections and five second-round picks.

Carnell Williams earned NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year honors in 2005, while in 2006 Marcus McNeill became the first NFL rookie offensive lineman in 16 years to start in the Pro Bowl. McNeill was named to the 2007 Pro Bowl making him just the second NFL lineman ever to be named to the Pro Bowl in their first two years.

The East team head coach at the 2006 Hula Bowl, Tuberville is currently on the Board of Trustees of the American Football Coaches Association and is serving a three-year term on the AFCA rules committee. For his numerous achievements during his career, Tuberville was inducted into the Arkansas Sports Hall of Fame in February, 2008.

Off the field, Auburn earned more than 81 SEC Academic Honor Roll distinctions during Tuberville's tenure, and when the NCAA released its Academic Progress Report (APR) in February 2006, Auburn football had a multi-year score of 981, which was the highest score among public BCS conference institutions. The program received public recognition from the NCAA for being in the top 10 percentile nationally and was one of only four BCS institutions to earn such distinctions.

Entering the 2007 season, 10 players had graduated before the start of the season. Coupled with four December graduates, Auburn played in the Chick-fil-A Bowl with 14 graduates on its roster.

In 2006, 11 players had graduated before the start of the season, and Auburn had 16 graduates on its 2007 AT&T Cotton Bowl roster. In 2005, 12 players graduated prior to the Capital One Bowl, while in 2004, nine players who had already earned their degrees played in the Nokia Sugar Bowl. In 2003, linebacker Dontarrious Thomas, a three-time SEC Honor Roll selection, was one of eight Division I players named a National College Scholar-Athlete which awarded him a $18,000 postgraduate scholarship from the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame.

Tuberville also believes in giving back to the community. Among other activities, he hosts charity golf tournaments for Camp ASCAA, the Girls and Boys Club of Montgomery, the Auburn University Marching Band and the Alabama Sheriff's Youth Ranch.

Tuberville's community service reached well beyond the local, state and national level in May 2008, when he participated in the inaugural Armed Forces Entertainment Coaches Tour in the Middle East with fellow college coaches Mark Richt of Georgia, Randy Shannon of Miami (Fla.), Jack Siedlecki of Yale and Charlie Weis of Notre Dame. With a mission to help boost troop morale, the six-day tour made stops at military bases in Germany, Qatar, Bahrain, United Arab Emirates and a visit to the USS Nassau in the Persian Gulf.

In addition, Tuberville continually stresses the importance of participating in community service projects to Auburn's football team. Auburn football players regularly read at local schools, serve as mentors and visit with the elderly. The last two summers, the football team spent a day working at Story Book Farm which is a non-profit organization that provides therapeutic horseback riding for children suffering from disabilities, chronic illnesses or those who have suffered a loss.

Tuberville understands the process and commitment it takes to build a successful program. Coaching stops at perennial college football powers University of Miami and Texas A&M and a four-year head coaching stint at the University of Mississippi gave him the background in building and maintaining a successful program.

While at Ole Miss from 1995-98, Tuberville posted a 25-20 record. Inheriting a Rebel program plagued by NCAA sanctions and probation, he guided Ole Miss to a winning record in his first season in 1995, despite having just 61 players on scholarship. He did not have a full compliment of scholarship players to work with in any of his four years at Ole Miss.

By the time he had three recruiting classes under his belt, Tuberville led Ole Miss to an 8-4 mark and a victory in the inaugural Motor City Bowl in 1997. His efforts earned him Associated Press SEC Coach of the Year Honors and American Football Quarterly magazine selected him as runner-up for its Schutt Sports Coach of the Year honor.

Prior to becoming head coach at Ole Miss, Tuberville served as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Texas A&M for one season. In 1994, he helped lead the Aggies to a 10-0-1 record and No. 8 final ranking by the Associated Press. Under his direction, the Aggie defense finished fourth nationally in scoring defense (13.1 ppg), fifth in total defense (265.5 ypg) and sixth in rushing defense (92.4 ypg).

Tuberville served as a member of the University of Miami staff for eight seasons from 1986-93, taking over as defensive coordinator in 1993. While serving on the staffs of Jimmy Johnson and Dennis Erickson at Miami, Tuberville was a defensive coach on teams which won three national championships, posted an 87-9 record and played in nine consecutive New Year's Day bowls.

As defensive coordinator for the Hurricanes in 1993, Tuberville directed a Miami defense which was ranked No. 3 nationally in scoring defense (12.6 ppg) and No. 5 nationally in pass defense (91.15 ypg). Tuberville began his collegiate coaching career at Arkansas State in 1980, coaching various segments of the Indians' defense over the next five seasons. During a five-year stay at Arkansas State, Tuberville coached defensive backs, nose guards and linebackers. During his final year at ASU, the Indians advanced to the second round of the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs.

He began his coaching career at Hermitage (Ark.) High School where he spent two years as an assistant and two as a head coach. After three straight four-win seasons, Tuberville guided HHS to a 7-3 mark in 1979 before moving to Arkansas State.

A 1976 graduate of Southern Arkansas University, Tuberville was a letterman at free safety and a two-year member of the golf team at SAU. He is a 1972 graduate of Harmony Grove High School in Camden, Ark.

Tuberville is married to the former Suzanne Fette of Guilford, Ind. They are the parents of two sons, Thomas Tucker (15) and Troy Allen (13).

NEAL BROWN

As one of the rising stars in the collegiate coaching ranks, Neal Brown was given the task of maintaining Texas Tech's highly successful offense and begins his first season as the Red Raiders' offensive coordinator.

Brown, 29, comes to Texas Tech from Troy University (Troy, Ala./ Sun Belt Conference) where he spent the last four seasons with the Trojans, including the last two as quarterbacks coach and offensive coordinator. During his tenure at Troy, the Trojans won four consecutive conference titles and earned three bowl invitations.

Despite being the youngest offensive coordinator in the FBS, Brown's impact on the Trojan offense was impressive as his unit ended the 2009 season ranked third nationally in total offense (485.6 yards-per-game) fourth in passing (336.5 yards-per-game) and 16th in scoring (33.69 points-per-game). The Trojan offense dominated the Sun Belt Conference as they led the league in scoring, total offense, passing, pass efficiency and first downs.

In his first season as offensive coordinator in 2008, the Trojans' fast-paced no huddle offense set 10 school records, including the most total yards in a season, most first downs in a season, most total yards in a game, most first downs in a game, and most pass completions in a game. In his first season as offensive coordinator, Brown led the Trojans to a national ranking of 26 in total offense with 421.42 yards-per-game. He also led the Trojans rushing attack to a 36th-place national ranking, while the passing game came in at 32. The Trojans were the 23rd-highest scoring team in the country in 2008, averaging 33.25 points-per-game under Brown's leadership. In addition, Troy ranked in the top three of every major offensive category in the Sun Belt during the 2008 season.

As the offensive coordinator, Troy won two outright conference championships and played in two bowl games. He also tutored the 2009 Sun Belt Player of the Year in quarterback Levi Brown. Brown was second in total offense and sixth in passing while setting numerous school records.

During Brown's first two seasons at Troy he coached the inside receivers. In 2007, the Trojan offense was among the nation's leaders in scoring, total offense, passing, rushing, and most plays from scrimmage.

In Brown's first season at Troy, he helped transform the Trojan offense from one of the worst in all of college football to a unit that led the Sun Belt Conference. Brown, along with outside receivers coach Shayne Wasden, led a receiving corp that finished the season with three receivers ranked among the top 10 in the conference.

Brown went to Troy after serving as wide receivers coach at the University of Delaware, a perennial Division I-AA power. He started three freshman in the Blue Hens' spread attack and led them to a 6-5 record. Prior to his stint at Delaware, Brown served as wide receivers coach and quarterbacks coach at NCAA Division I-AA Sacred Heart in 2004; leading the Fairfield, CT school to a record of 6-4 overall and the top-ranked scoring offense in the conference. Brown came to Sacred Heart after working as tight ends coach and offensive line assistant at the University of Massachusetts. In 2003, he helped lead the Minutemen to a share of the Atlantic-10 title and a berth in the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs.

He earned his undergraduate degree in Business Management in 2002 and his Masters in Business Administration in 2005, both from the University of Massachusetts.

Brown earned two letters as a wide receiver at UMass, catching 58 passes for 721 yards and four touchdowns while being named to the Atlantic-10 All-Academic and the NCAA Division I-AA Athletic Director's Academic All-Star Team as a senior.

The Danville, KY native played his first three seasons at the University of Kentucky. While at Kentucky, Brown earned two letters and participated in the Outback and Music City Bowls. He was also a member of the Southeastern Conference's All-Academic Team all three seasons.

Brown is a member of the Boyle County Baseball and Football Hall of Fame. He is married to the former Brooke Stewart, and the couple has one child, Adalyn.

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

JAMES WILLIS

The challenge of bringing the Texas Tech defense up to championship level was placed in the hands of James Willis as he was named the Red Raiders' defensive coordinator on Jan 14. Willis spent three seasons as an assistant under coach Tuberville in Auburn and last year with NCAA champion Alabama.

Willis' year-long stop in Tuscaloosa was a fruitful one as the Tide won the national championship in a 14-0 season. Serving as associate head coach to Nick Saban, Willis coached the linebackers and helped lead a defense that ranked second nationally in total defense. All-American linebacker Rolando McClain played under Willis' direction last season and claimed the prestigious Butkus Award at season's end.

Willis spent the 2006-08 seasons as the linebackers coach at Auburn under Tuberville. The Tigers ranked No. 7 nationally in scoring defense in 2006 and followed with a No. 6 ranking in 2007 and a No. 14 ranking in scoring defense in 2008. Auburn appeared in two bowls during his tenure - the 2007 AT&T Cotton Bowl and the 2007 Chick-fil-A Bowl. The Tigers defeated Nebraska 17-14 in the Cotton Bowl and defeated Clemson 23-20 in overtime in the Chick-fil-A. Willis also coached a pair of Freshman All-Americans at linebacker at Auburn in Tray Blackmon (2006) and Spencer Pybus (2008).

Prior to his stint at Auburn, Willis coached the linebackers at Temple (2005) and Rhode Island (2004-05). He coached Rhode Island linebacker Teddy Gibbons to team MVP and All-Atlantic 10 Conference honors in 2004. In 2003, Willis was a defensive graduate assistant at Auburn after working as a student assistant the previous two years at AU.

Willis spent seven seasons in the NFL and one season in the XFL. He began his professional career with the Green Bay Packers (1993-94) before making the move to Philadelphia (1995-98), where he was a three-year starter for the Eagles. His final NFL season was in 1999 with the Seattle Seahawks and his playing career concluded in 2001 with the Birmingham Thunderbolts of the XFL where he was the league's defensive most valuable player.

Over the course of his seven-year NFL career, he was a part of six playoff teams including two conference championships. His most memorable game in the state of Texas came as a member of the Philadelphia Eagles in a crucial NFC East game against the Dallas Cowboys back in 1996. Willis intercepted Dallas quarterback Troy Aikman deep in the end zone and ran the ball out 14 yards and threw a lateral pass to Eagles cornerback Troy Vincent, who returned it 90 yards for a touchdown with 15 seconds left to help seal the Eagles' 31-21 win.

As a collegiate player, Willis was a three-year starter at Auburn (1990-92). He recorded 344 career tackles and was a member of the 1990 Peach Bowl team. Willis was a first team All-SEC selection in 1992 and was the SEC Co-Defensive Freshman of the Year in 1990. A fifth round draft pick by Green Bay following his junior season, Willis returned to earn his degree in Adult Education from Auburn.

Willis was born in Huntsville, Ala. and played high school football at J.D. Johnson High School, where he was a Parade All-American as a linebacker. He and his wife, Shalane, are the proud parents of daughter, Jade, and sons, Jalen and Jordan James.

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

SAM MCELROY

Sam McElroy, the head coach at Division II Tarleton State University for the last five seasons, joined the Red Raiders in February of 2010 and begins his first season in Lubbock as the defensive line coach.

McElroy, who led the Texans to a 40-15 record over the last five seasons, directed Tarleton to Lone Star Conference South Division Co-Championships in 2006 and 2009 as well as a LSC Co-Championship in 2009. His 2009 team advanced to the second round of the NCAA Division II playoffs. He was named the AFCA Region IV Coach of the Year in 2009.

McElroy continued the winning tradition at Tarleton by bringing in both quality coaches and players to represent Tarleton in a positive manner. He has also continued to build on the traditions and ideals that have made Tarleton a winning program.

McElroy, the 24th coach in Texan football history and the 11th since the school became a senior college, has the highest winning percentage (.727) of a head coach in Tarleton history. As a member of the Texan staff as both a head and assistant coach, McElroy helped the Texans to a 65-25 record (.722).

In 2009, the Texans finished 10-3 and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Division II playoffs for just the second time in school history.

In 2008, Tarleton finished 8-3 after starting the season winning the first five games for the second straight season. Tarleton's game with Angelo State – a 31-24 victory over the Rams – was broadcast on national television on CBS College Sports Network. Tarleton tied for third in the very competitive Lone Star Conference South Division.

The 2007 Texans finished 9-2 and was denied the school's third NCAA playoff appearance; however, the Texan head coach was named the Lone Star Conference South Division Co-Coach of the Year. The season included an overtime victory over NCAA Division I Football Subdivision member Stephen F. Austin.

Tarleton finished the 2006 season 6-4 overall and claimed a share of the LSC South Division championship after going 5-1 in the division. The Texans were just short of the playoffs that season as well. In 2005, McElroy led the Texans to a 7-3 overall record and was one win short of a NCAA Division II playoff contest.

During his eight years on the Tarleton staff as both a head coach and a defensive coordinator, McElroy has seen 56 Texans earn First Team All-LSC honors, 34 second team honors and 29 honorable mention nods.

McElroy returned to Tarleton after spending two seasons as an assistant coach at North Texas, a NCAA Division I member of the Sun Belt Conference. Prior to his position at UNT, Tarleton's head coach spent three seasons as the defensive coordinator for the Texans. In 2002, he also held the position of assistant head coach at Tarleton.

In his two seasons at UNT, McElroy coached three first-team all-conference selections in safeties Craig Jones and Jonas Buckles (two-time honoree). He also helped in the development of Markeith Knowlton, who made the transition from safety to starting cornerback for the Mean Green. UNT made two consecutive appearances in the New Orleans Bowl, and the Mean Green went 9-4 in 2003 and 7-5 in 2004. While at Tarleton the first time, McElroy guided a defense that improved each year under his direction. His last season with the Texans, his defense allowed opponents just 271 yards of offense and 17.1 points per game to rank second in the Lone Star Conference. Over his three seasons at Tarleton, McElroy helped 17 players earn all-conference recognition, including the league's Defensive Lineman and Defensive Back of the Year in 2002. The Texans won the Lone Star's North Division in 2002 with a 9-2 overall record, including a 4-1 record in conference games. In 2001, McElroy guided a strong defense that helped Tarleton State win its first-ever Lone Star Conference championship and advance to the NCAA Division II quarterfinals.

McElroy also served as activity director for the National Youth Sports Program (NYSP) summer camp, which is a month-long sports and education program that Tarleton offers to area youths.

McElroy, who has experience as a head coach at the high school level, came to Tarleton after working seven seasons as a defensive coach at Sam Houston State University.

During his seven years on the staff at SHSU, McElroy coached eight players who earned All-Southland Conference honors. In addition, he tutored the punt and kickoff return special teams.

McElroy started at SHSU after serving one season as head football coach and athletics director at Alto High School. That year he was named 1992 District 22-AA Coach of the Year after winning the district title and earning a state playoff berth.

In 1991, as head football coach and athletics director at T.K. Gorman High School in Tyler, McElroy produced a 10-3 record, won the district crown and reached the TAPPS Class AA state finals.

He also served as recruiting coordinator and secondary coach at Navarro Junior College in the spring of 1991 and was a graduate assistant coach at Baylor University in 1989 and 1990. McElroy, who assisted in the secondary, helped to direct a Baylor defensive unit that led the Southwest Conference in defense both seasons.

A native of Corsicana, McElroy coached as defensive end and freshman coach at Corsicana High School from 1986 to 1988. McElroy's freshman team won nine games in 1987. He was a student assistant and graduate assistant at Texas State University-San Marcos (then-Southwest Texas State University) from 1983 through 1985, with the Bobcats winning the Lone Star Conference title in 1983.

McElroy earned a bachelor's degree in education from Texas State in 1985 before receiving his master's degree from Baylor in 1990.

McElroy and his wife, Valerie, have three children, Sarah, Ryan and Madison.

OFFENSIVE LINE

MATT MOORE

Matt Moore enters his fourth season spearheading the coaching efforts for the Red Raiders' front five. Moore is no stranger to the offense and wide line splits as he has coached in the scheme on the high school level for several years and at Troy for a season before joining the Tech staff.

Last season, Moore faced his most difficult coaching task since joining the Red Raiders as he was forced to replace three starters on the line from 2008, including two All-Americans. His unit showed continuing improvement over the course of the season which culminated in an Alamo Bowl victory over Michigan State.

A better season couldn't have been scripted for Moore's offensive line in 2008 as three players earned All-America status, including Rylan Reed and Brandon Carter, who were named to the Walter Camp and AFCA first teams. Carter also was named to The Sporting News first team, while Louis Vasquez picked up AP third-team honors. Each also was named to various Big 12 All-Conference teams.

The offensive line proved to be the catalyst of the offensive unit last year, allowing a single sack per every 54 pass attempts, a number that led the nation. Additionally, the group paved the way for 28 rushing touchdowns, the second-most in school history and the most since the 1993 team tallied 30.

The Red Raiders picked up another NCAA passing title as Graham Harrell led an offense that accumulated 413.2 yards per game through the air. Harrell went on to win the Unitas Award and was fourth in Heisman voting at season's end.

Moore's unit turned in a successful season in 2007, allowing a slim 18 sacks in 763 pass attempts. The ratio of one sack per every 44 pass attempts led the country. Additionally, Vasquez and Reed showed discipline and poise as both were flagged only once each for holding calls. The duo also allowed only three sacks on the season.

Behind the protection of the offensive line, Texas Tech won its fifth NCAA passing title in the Mike Leach era and first since the 2005 season. The Red Raiders averaged 470.3 yards per game through the air, and quarterback Graham Harrell led the nation in passing and won the Sammy Baugh Award as the country's top quarterback.

Moore came to Tech with one year of collegiate coaching experience at Troy, where he helped lead the Trojans to an 8-5 season in 2006, including a New Orleans Bowl Championship over Rice.

Moore's stint on the collegiate level was preceded by successful runs as a coach at the high school level in Georgia and Alabama, where he quickly established himself as a top prep coach. During six seasons as offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Hoover (Ala.) High School, Moore helped lead the Buccaneers to three consecutive Class 6A titles and a 77-7 record.

He began his coaching career at Pickens (Ga.) High School in 1996 and continued at Hoover High School after two seasons. Moore served as head coach at North Gwinnett (Ga.) High School, before joining the staff at Troy.

A native of Canton, Ga., Moore played at Valdosta (Ga.) State, where Leach was the offensive coordinator. He started 34 games during the 1991-94 seasons at left guard and was a first-team All-Gulf South Conference selection as a senior.

Moore received his bachelor's degree from VSU in health and physical education. He and his wife, Kelly, have three daughters - Tanner, Reece and Sutton.

TOMMY MAINORD

WIDE RECEIVERS

Tommy Mainord begins his first season as Texas Tech's outside receivers coach after joining the Red Raiders from Lamar University.

Mainord was named offensive coordinator at Lamar in September of 2008 as the Cardinals began preparations for their return to the gridiron in 2010. Lamar had not fielded a football program in over 20 years.

Prior to his stint at Lamar, he served as the co-offensive coordinator at Sam Houston State in 2008 while recruiting west Houston for the Bearkats. Mainord coached D.D. Terry who rushed for a school-record 1,328 yards to rank seventh nationally among football championship subdivision schools and led the Southland Conference with 132.8 yards per game. He was also a first team All-Southland pick and one of 16 finalists for the Walter Payton Award as the Division I FCS Offensive Player of the Year.

Mainord came to Sam Houston after working the previous six years as an assistant coach at his alma mater, Tarleton State. He served as a student assistant and graduate assistant before taking over as quarterbacks and running backs coach for the Texans in 2002.

In 2004, he coached both quarterbacks and running backs, including Derrick Ross who earned NCAA Division II honorable mention All-America honors and was an NCAA All-Region and All-Lone Star Conference first team selection as well. Ross gained 1,560 yards in 10 games. His yardage was the best rushing total by an LSC back in 14 seasons. Mainord produced two All-LSC running backs in 2003 (Joe Morrison and Carl Steward) as the Texans went 8-4 to claim a second consecutive LSC North Division title. Morrison was a first team selection while Steward earned second team honors.

Tarleton State rolled up 1,773 yards and scored 24 touchdowns on the ground in 2001 as the Texans went 10-3 to earn a No. 10 national ranking and advance to the NCAA Division II quarterfinals. In 2000, Mainord's running backs gained more than 1,675 yards.

Mainord played varsity baseball at TSU before joining the Texan football program as a student assistant coach in 1999. He earned both a bachelor's degree in health and sports science (2000) and a masters degree in education (2001) from Tarleton State.

Mainord is the son of former Texas Tech assistant coach Carlos Mainord who spent 15 total seasons with the Red Raiders.

He and his wife, Tiffany, have a daughter, Maecee and a son, Davis.

SONNY CUMBIE

INSIDE RECEIVERS

Sonny Cumbie's association with Texas Tech football began in 2000, when he was a walk-on quarterback in Mike Leach's first season as head coach. Cumbie is now a full-time assistant under Texas Tech Head Coach Tommy Tuberville and will serve as the inside receivers' coach under Offensive Coordinator Neal Brown.

During his years as a football player at Texas Tech, Cumbie worked diligently and waited patiently for his chance to serve as starting quarterback in the prolific Tech offense—and in 2004, he earned the spot and led the Red Raiders to an 8-4 season. During that season, Cumbie twice led the Red Raiders to 70+ point games and capped off the season with a 520 yard MVP performance in the 2004 Holiday Bowl victory over (then) #4 California. Cumbie still holds the Holiday Bowl record for most passing yards. He finished the season with 4,472 yards passing—fifth-best in school history, and 7th best in NCAA History. He was an Honorable Mention performer on the field and All Big 12 Performer in the classroom.

Following a successful career at Texas Tech, Cumbie went on to play for the Los Angeles Avengers of the Arena Football League (AFL). As a rookie in 2006, Cumbie started 12 games and set a franchise record for most passes attempted without an interception: 252. He was named the AFL All-Rookie Team Quarterback and was a finalist for Rookie of the Year. Upon completion of the 2006 season, Cumbie was signed by the Baltimore Ravens. In 2007 Cumbie was back in the AFL, leading the Avengers to their 1st playoff victory in franchise history, throwing for 83 touchdowns.

From 2005-2009, during the AFL's off seasons, Cumbie served on the Texas Tech Sports Network as an analyst. He was able to stay closely involved with Tech football while broadcasting their games and offering the insights of a former player.

After the Arena Football League suddenly ceased operations before the start of the 2009 season, Cumbie became the Head Coach and Director of Player Personnel for the San Angelo Stampede of the Indoor Football League. Four games into the season, Cumbie also added starting quarterback to his list of responsibilities. Once again, as he had with the Avengers, Cumbie lead a franchise to the playoffs and its first playoff win in the team's history.

Cumbie and his wife, Tamra, are both natives of Snyder, Texas, and have called Lubbock home for more than 10 years. Cumbie graduated from Texas Tech with a Bachelor's Degree in History; his wife has a Master's Degree in Technical Communication and is currently pursuing a PhD in Marriage and Family Therapy from Texas Tech.

CHAD SCOTT

RUNNING BACKS

Chad Scott begins his first season as the running backs coach at Texas Tech University after spending the last three seasons in the same position at Troy University in Troy, Ala.

Scott's group of running backs last season at Troy rushed for 1,939 yards and was responsible for 25-of-29 total touchdowns on the ground. His efforts helped Troy to a third place finish in the national statistical rankings for total offense at 485.6 yards-per-game.

In 2008, he was part of the staff that led the Trojans to a national ranking of 26th in total offense with 421.42 yards per game, and 23rd in scoring offense averaging 33.25 points per game. He also led the Trojans rushing attack to a 36th-place national ranking, while the passing game came in at 32.

In three seasons, Scott has made a big impact on the Troy rushing attack. The run game made significant strides, ranking 35th in the country in 2007, and 36th in 2008. In Scott's first two seasons at Troy, he coached an all Sun-Belt Conference player at running back in Kenny Cattouse and DuJuan Harris. Harris eclipsed the century mark in 2008, his first year as a starter, ranking second in the conference in rushing with 1,077 yards. He also finished fifth in the league in scoring and first in the league in receptions amongst all running backs. In 2009, Scott's last season at Troy, he coached the Sun Belt Conference Freshman of the Year Shawn Southward who also ranked fifth in the nation amongst all freshmen with 10 total rushing touchdowns.

Off the field, Scott is quickly becoming known by his colleagues and others to be a great recruiter. Scott came to Troy from the University of North Carolina, where he served as a graduate assistant, and was primarily tasked with breaking down opponent video and game video in 2006 and 2007.

Prior to his coaching career, Scott was a two-year letterwinner at running back for the University of Kentucky from 2000-2. As a freshman, he led the Wildcats with 611 rushing yards and was named to the All-SEC Freshman Team, as well as being named a Third-Team Freshman All-American. As a sophomore, he played in eight games and was slowed with an ankle injury which limited him to 210 rushing yards.

After sitting out as a transfer in 2002, Scott played in 10 games as a junior for the University of North Carolina in 2003. That season he rushed for 182 yards. As a senior, he ranked seventh in the Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC), averaging 72.4 yards per game on the ground for the Tar Heels. He also totaled 796 yards and eight touchdowns during his senior season for North Carolina.

Following his collegiate playing career, Scott tried his hand in the National Football League (NFL), where he spent time with three illustrious franchises in the Cleveland Browns (2005), Pittsburgh Steelers (2005) and New York Giants (2005-06).

A native of Plant City, Fla., Scott received his Bachelor of Arts degree in Sociology from the University of North Carolina in 2004. He is married to the former Shambria Jones of Yazoo City, Miss., and the couple has one daughter, Kori Cherrell.

ROBERT PRUNTY

A dynamic recruiter and well respected head coach at Hargrave Military Academy in Chatham, Va., Robert Prunty joins the Texas Tech football staff as the defensive ends and outside linebackers coach.

Prunty's football knowledge and the ability to recruit were the reasons he was brought on board to help install Tech's 3-4 defense under the guidance of defensive coordinator James Willis. He inherits the defensive end position that set a new school record last season with 41 sacks.

Since 2002, Prunty served as the head football coach at Hargrave Military Academy where 27 of his players went on to the National Football League (NFL). Since 1999, the academy has been responsible for six first-round draft choices including two first-round players coached by Prunty. The academy has also produced two players faced by Texas Tech in bowl games: Virginia offensive tackle Branden Albert and Mississippi defensive tackle Peria Jerry. Albert and Perry were first-round picks by Kansas City and Atlanta, respectively.

Prior to his tenure at Hargrave, Prunty led a resurgence at Gretna High School in Gretna, Va., as he redirected a program that lost 44 consecutive games between 1991-1995 and went 11-1 in his final season there in 2001. Gretna went on to become a powerhouse, winning multiple state championships.

Prunty is a Chatham, Va., native and a 1983 Hargrave Military Academy graduate. He earned his bachelor's degree in social work from Alabama A&M in 1987. Coach Prunty and his wife Kimberly have a son, Robert Prunty Jr., and a daughter Gabrielle.

DEFENSIVE ENDS & OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

TRAVARIS ROBINSON

After a successful playing career under coach Tommy Tuberville at Auburn, Travaris Robinson joins Tuberville's first staff at Texas Tech as the secondary coach. He joins the Red Raiders after a one-year stint at Southern Miss.

Robinson -- a former Auburn defensive back, who played two seasons in the National Football League -- served as a full-time assistant at Western Kentucky in 2008. He went to WKU after spending a year as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Auburn.

A four-year letterwinner at Auburn, Robinson played in 48 contests from 1999-02 while helping the Tigers win outright or share three consecutive Southeastern Conference West Division championships.

Auburn went 30-19 (61.2 percent) overall during his career, including a top 20 in both the final Associated Press and ESPN/USA Today coaches' polls after his senior season. He was selected the Most Valuable Player of the Iron Bowl after recording 12 tackles -- including 10 solo -- and breaking up a pair of passes to help the Tigers to a 13-9 victory over rival Alabama, as they would go on to defeat Penn State in the Capital One Bowl on New Year's Day.

He was a first-team AP all-SEC selection at the end of the year after collecting 92 total tackles -- which ranked second on the squad -- intercepting four passes and breaking up three others.

Auburn would also end the season ranked in the top 20 of both national polls Robinson's sophomore season, when it finished 9-4 after participating in the Florida Citrus Bowl.

He concluded his collegiate career with 166 tackles, seven passes defended and five interceptions.

Robinson would then go on to play for the Atlanta Falcons and Tampa Bay Buccaneers in the NFL during the 2003 and '04 seasons, appearing in nine contests while splitting time with the two clubs as a rookie. He would return to Auburn in 2006 as a student assistant while finishing up his undergraduate degree. That fall, the Tigers would post an 11-2 record including a 6-2 mark in SEC action. They were ranked as high as No. 2 in the nation, and would go on to defeat Nebraska by a field goal in the AT&T Cotton Bowl Classic.

After earning his degree in communications, Robinson remained with the Tigers as a graduate assistant last season. In addition to assisting with all aspects of the defense, he was responsible for opponent scouting, organizing scout teams for the defense and kicking game, video breakdown and computer data entry, the defensive scouting report, and all aspects of on-campus recruiting. AU was 9-4 in 2007, ending the year with a 23-20 overtime victory over Clemson in the Chick-fil-A Bowl.

A native of Miami, Fla., Robinson was a four-year letterwinner at Coral Park Senior HS, where he earned all-state honors as a defensive back and wide receiver.

NATIONAL AWARDS

NATIONAL FOOTBALL FOUNDATION AND COLLEGE HALL OF FAME

The National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame recognizes those who made an impact on college football during their careers. There are more than 850 members currently in the Hall of Fame, selected from a pool of more than four million players throughout collegiate football history. Three are from Texas Tech – E.J. Holub, Donny Anderson and Dave Parks, who was enshrined in July 2009 in South Bend, Ind.

HALL OF HONOR

The Texas Tech Athletic Hall of Honor was established in 1961 to recognize a select group of people who have had a special impact on Texas Tech athletics. Induction into the Hall is not limited to past athletes or administrators, although many Red Raider stars are among the members. To be eligible for consideration, the candidate should not only have brought distinction to the Texas Tech athletic program, but also have displayed qualifications such as sportsmanship, character and integrity. A former athlete is not eligible until 10 years after his/her class has graduated. Full-time Texas Tech athletic employees are not eligible. Inductees are honored at the annual Hall of Honor Banquet on Friday night before the Texas or Texas A&M home football game. Since the Hall of Honor's initial ceremony, 143 people have been inducted. More detailed information can be found at www.texastech.com and click on Hall of Honor.

▲ DAVE BROWN (2001-05) served as Texas Tech's cornerbacks coach for five seasons. The former All-American at the University of Michigan and All-Pro with the Seattle Seahawks was inducted into the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame in December 2008.

▲ ROMEO CRENNEL (1975-77) worked under Steve Sloan for three seasons as the director of offseason programs. Crennel has since gone on to the NFL, most recently as the head coach of the Cleveland Browns.

▲ BILL PARCELLS (1975-77) was Steve Sloan's defensive coordinator for three seasons. Parcels has paved an impressive path since then, serving as a Super Bowl-winning head coach with the New York Giants in the '80s among other NFL stops. He is currently the vice president of Football Operations with the Miami Dolphins.

▲ AL GROH (1980) coached the Texas Tech linebackers for one season before moving on to a successful career in the professional and collegiate coaching ranks. Groh worked with five NFL teams, including a season as head coach of the New York Jets. Groh is currently the head coach at the University of Virginia.

BOWL HISTORY

Texas Tech has made 33 postseason bowl appearances in its 85-year history and ranks among the top 20 programs all-time in bowl games played. The Red Raiders rank fourth among current Big 12 Conference programs in appearances, and also boast the distinction of being the only program in the league to be bowl eligible every season since the Big 12's formation in 1996.
